Shearwater

From the exterior Shearwater could be mistaken for a period property but step inside and you are greeted with a home balancing character with comfort; underfloor heating teamed with cast iron radiators, a country chic kitchen with integrated appliances, Shearwater is a home which discreetly ticks all the boxes. Perfectly symmetrical with a twin apex frontage and two balconies to soak up the views, Shearwater docks its cap towards classic Victorian architecture whilst providing all the luxury and comfort of a newbuild. Timber framed bay windows at one end of your living room and French doors facing the sea at the other means the reception rooms always feel bright and inviting.
