Interior

A superb newly built modern detached home clad in ash with an anthracite grey aluminium roof, very stylish and contemporary. Internally, the decor is light and neutral with triple glazed Internorm windows, oak doors and associated woodwork. There is underfloor heating throughout the ground floor below the herringbone patterned luxurious Amtico flooring and the finish is immaculate inside and out.

Ground Floor:

The wide entrance hall has useful seating and hanging space and leads to all rooms on this bright and airy floor. The impressive open plan kitchen/dining/sitting room has a vaulted ceiling and extremely wide Internorm sliding patio doors that allows light to flood into this spacious area. To one end is the high end kitchen complete with integrated double oven with combination microwave, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, induction hob with down draft extractor, along with a boiling water/filtered water tap. All this is within the graphite and grey wall and base units that also form a substantial kitchen island, finished with pale grey sealed stone quartz worktops.

A large separate family room, or possibly additional bedroom, has patio doors onto the decking and has lovely views over the garden. A 'Jack and Jill' shower room is between the generous sized double bedroom, with its built in double wardrobes and doors to a decked area at the fore of the building, and the utility room. This area has space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer, more storage cupboards and sink. Within the hallway are large double cupboards, giving plenty of additional storage space, the rear access door to the outside and access to the plant room.

First Floor:

Two generous sized double bedrooms both with stylish ensuite facilities.

The principal bedroom, with its fully tiled ensuite bathroom along with a large separate shower cubicle, is spacious and has double built in wardrobes. The bespoke window frames the gorgeous views out over the garden and countryside and from which you can enjoy the rising sun.

The other double bedroom has an ensuite shower room in the similar modern style as well as a built in wardrobe. This room could possibly be divided and made into two good sized single rooms.

Exterior

The property is accessed along a gravel driveway through a traditional wooden barred gate. The parking area at the front of the property has room for several vehicles and has a central grassed area with a mature apple tree to one side. The rear garden reaches out from the deep composite decking that spreads across the rear of the house. The grassed outside space has many mature trees along its boundaries and is a beautiful area to relax and enjoy the surrounding peaceful countryside views.

Outbuilding

A re-configured container which sits to one side of the front garden and cleverly blends along with the house in matching anthracite grey. Part of the container has been left for general storage and has been divided to form a separate office room, complete with electrical data points and its own access door.

Gurnard

Gurnard is a pretty coastal village which has an iconic row of beach huts at Gurnard Green. It lies to the west of the famous yachting town of Cowes with good mainland connections via the 'Red Jet' to Southampton. The village has a great community spirit and amenities include a local convenience shop, cafe, two popular public houses, a church, a fitness centre, a busy sailing club and a superb local primary school and High School. There is a fabulous array of countryside and coastal paths which are all within easy walking distance.
