This delightful mid-terraced period property offers a unique blend of unique charm and contemporary style. Spread over three floors, this home boasts three bedrooms, two reception rooms, a fabulous half-tiled bathroom and a stylish kitchen, with a snug area overlooking the garden, offering sea views. Chain free and ready to move into.

Delightful three bedroom mid terraced property

Located in a great position with a short walk into Cowes High Street, close to the chain ferry and the Red Jet to Southampton. This charming and quirky home is beautifully presented and has two reception rooms, fabulous kitchen and snug area looking out over the decked area and garden. Keeping some period features and modern additions, this home is ready to move into and enjoy. Absolutely must be seen.

Interior

This home has warmth and character exuding from its period features, from the stripped floorboards to the feature fireplaces in many rooms, along with seamlessly incorporating contemporary touches. This offers a perfect balance of old-world charm and modern convenience.

Ground Floor:

The kitchen, with its thick oak work surfaces and modern shaker-style units, exemplifies this blend of tradition and modernity. There is an integrated electric oven and induction hob along with many wall and base units giving ample storage. A utility room has space and plumbing for a washing machine.

Two reception rooms, both with recesses in their respective chimney breasts, evoke a cosy cottage ambience.

First Floor:

The fabulous half-tiled bathroom features a separate freestanding bath and tiled shower cubicle.

Two further bedrooms can be found on this floor, one a double with original fireplace and the other a single which could be utilised as a dressing room or office.

Guide Price £310,000

Second Floor:

The top floor of the property boasts stunning sea views, making it a serene and picturesque setting for the principal bedroom. Built-in under eaves cupboards provide practical storage solutions while maximizing space and functionality.

In Summary:

This mid-terraced period property offers a rare opportunity to own a home with a perfect blend of quirky charm and modern comfort. From the quaint cottage feel to the beautiful kitchen and garden sea views, every aspect of this home is designed to delight. Beautifully presented and extremely well maintained, this home is ready for its new owners to move in and start enjoying the coastal lifestyle immediately.

Exterior

The front of the property has a purpose built bin store, with low maintenance shingle underfoot and the whole area is prettily decorated in shades of blue and cream.

At the rear of the property, adjacent to the French doors is a decked area that curves around to the utility area and leads to steps into the pretty garden. A grassed area has mature shrubs and plants either side and flows down to the end of the garden which is laid with sleepers. This is a quiet, relaxing and thoughtfully planted area designed to be secluded and private with the addition of a large garden store complete with power.

Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland is situated.
