Spindrift

Located on the far side of Fishbourne Lane, with a circular green at the front, the property benefits from ownership of approximately 0.7 acre of the creek foreshore including a substantial timber groyne.

Built by the current owner in 2010, it is thoughtfully designed to make the most of the views and scenery.

The property occupies a superb location on the coastal fringe of Fishbourne great for sailing, paddleboarding and kayaking. A few metres along the lane is a small slipway and Wootton Creek provides access to the Solent and excellent access to the nearby ferry terminal, with its frequent services to Portsmouth. The Royal Victoria Sailing Club and Fishbourne Inn are both within easy walking distance.

Interior

There are large hallways and extensive storage areas making a stunning home that is both comfortable, practical, stylish along with efficient running costs . On the first floor is a wide balcony with glass panels and metal handrails that runs the full width of the house, making the most of the wonderful views, its a perfect location to relax.

First Floor:

The bright wide hallway has a galleried landing and attractive bespoke staircase. The gorgeous oak flooring flows throughout this level and the hallway leads off to a convenient tiled cloakroom, a useful office, sitting room and outstanding kitchen. The fabulous kitchen is a triple aspect room with a generous dining area along with sliding glazed doors to the balcony with those amazing views. There is an extensive range of principally Neff appliances including twin ovens, steam oven, microwave, induction hob with an extractor over, warming drawer, dishwasher, two fridges, wine fridge and a freezer. Extensive marble worksurfaces also extend across the large island which has twin sink units. The spacious sitting room has a contemporary Brabas fire with slate hearth and is flooded with daylight from the dual aspect full height windows and glazed sliding doors, providing a great vantage point for Solent gazing.

Ground Floor:

Three double bedrooms, two connected by an internal door, all look out to the well maintained garden. Each of these bright and airy rooms have an ensuite bath or shower room which are stylish and modern.

A long array of cupboards and storage line the hallway giving excellent extra space.

The utility room has built in cupboards, worksurfaces, ceramic sink unit, space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. This room also houses the Vaillant gas boiler and hot water cylinder, with further space for a fridge and a door to the rear garden. The useful two ring gas hob is a convenient element for any al fresco meals.

Exterior

A gravelled drive leads to a gated parking area for a number of cars adjacent to the house entrance. Surrounded by mature trees and shrubs the house is nestled into this attractive area and even from the driveway there are tantalising glimpses of the sea. The main garden is at the rear of the house where a large partially covered natural stone terrace is across the width of the house with a lawn that runs to the timber boathouse. This beautiful outside space is filled with mature trees and shrubs with an attractive rockery and water feature and paths linking the driveway and rear garden. The boathouse is served by power and lighting with a further gravelled parking area.

Fishbourne

This village is found on the eastern border of Wootton Creek. Within this historic area is The Fishbourne Inn that dates from the 1900s and the famous Quarr Abbey that is a fully working Benedictine monastery. As well as a place to worship, it is renowned for its tea room and the pigs/piglets that live there. Fishbourne has good bus routes to Cowes, Newport and Ryde and a cycle trail runs between The Abbey and Binstead. This beautiful area has many woodland walks and paths and has red squirrels in abundance.
