Cowes

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.

Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry, known locally as 'The Floaty', links Cowes to East Cowes where the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland is situated.

Approaching The Property

To the front of this home is a paved front garden made private by hedgerow. Potentially this could be made into a parking space provided the right permissions are granted. Gated side access leads to the rear garden. The front door leads into a pretty light and long porch with stained glass features, which has been rebuilt in recent years by the current owner.

Ground Floor

Wooden flooring flows through to all rooms on this level and the bright hallway has stairs leading up to the first floor and a door to the sitting room which is a naturally light room with a bay window to the front and a log burner set in a pretty brick fireplace with a mantle. Further along the lobby is a dining room which is a good size space with brick fireplace, understairs storage cupboard and an archway into the heart of the house! This is the ideal entertaining space. Modern and stylish light grey wall and base units with wooden worksurface over. A central island creates the perfect breakfast bar with the added benefit of extra storage draws and cupboards. The skylight and bi-folding doors to the garden allow an abundance of natural light. Built in appliances include a double oven with extractor over, tumble dryer, washing machine and fridge freezer. A cupboard houses the Worcester combination boiler.

First floor

The landing has a built in linen cupboard and loft access with doors off to the three bedrooms, a separate cloakroom and family bathroom with a white suited comprising of a 'P' shaped bath with shower over, WC and hand basin.

A generous double bedroom with bay window is to the front of the property with a pretty feature fireplace. Another double bedroom, with a window to the rear, looks out to the garden with sea glimpses. The third room is currently used as a study but could easily be a single bedroom. Double doors open up to a balcony where sea views across rooftops can be enjoyed.

Rear Garden

Enclosed peaceful rear garden mainly laid to lawn with paved stepping stones leading to the garden storage.
