Entering into a spacious porch with plenty of built in shelving and hanging space for shoes and coats, this very practical space flows through to the boot room/lobby that houses the boiler, consumer unit and further storage space. Off here is a convenient cloakroom and leads through to the expansive kitchen/dining room. The conservatory, which is off here, has great views out towards Newport and Worsley Down in the distance. There is an opaque ceiling and steps leading down directly into the garden.

From the wide hallway is the staircase leading up to the upper levels, another entrance door and access to two further reception rooms. One of these is currently used as a study or could become another reception room/playroom or den. The final room is a cosy sitting room with an outstanding fireplace that is wide and high and has a log burner nestled within upon a stone hearth. Fabulous.

First Floor:

The level has three double bedrooms, a large single bedroom and a separate family bathroom that is partly tiled and has a 'P' shaped bath and overhead shower.

The principal bedroom is a very generous size with an ensuite shower room. The south facing rear garden is mainly lawned with a paved patio area adjacent to the house and at the furthest point is a substantial open fronted garden room/wood store with hornbeam hedging giving privacy and seclusion. This is a lovely relaxing outside space to unwind and enjoy the birdsong.
