Lovingly renovated and arranged over three storeys, this four-bedroom terraced cottage is ideally positioned at the mouth of the Medina River, offering river and Solent views and an exceptional lifestyle in the heart of Cowes.

A roomy Grade II listed former public house

Lovingly renovated, this terraced, three storey cottage with four bedrooms is ideally located at the mouth of the Medina River between East and West Cowes. The cottage has river views from the living room and first floor and impressive Solent views from the second floor. It makes a wonderful family home or perfect lock up and leave bolthole to enjoy the buzz of Cowes, local sailing facilities and all the beaches and beautiful countryside across the Island.

3 Bell Cottages

Many period features have been retained, such as its original sash windows and green tiled exterior, adding carefully sourced reclaimed items, including a marble butler's sink and terracotta tiles in the kitchen, copper basins in the main bathroom and cast iron stands recovered from a Royal Mail train carriage.

Interior

Ground Floor:

There is a modern part glazed wooden door to the entrance lobby, with a cupboard housing meters and an archway to the sitting room. This delightful room features a wood burning stove with bookshelves either side of the fireplace. Two sash windows make this a light welcoming space, with a window seat below, allowing the room to comfortably seat 8 people. There is recessed lighting, an under stairs cupboard and an open plan staircase leading upwards with a doorway to kitchen/dining room. The open plan kitchen/diner is fitted with a range of hand built base units with solid Iroko wood work surface over. There is a fitted marble Belfast sink with mixer tap, a 5 ring Smeg range cooker with single electric oven, space and plumbing for a washing machine, dryer and dishwasher and the room is finished with a terracotta tiled floor. There is also a fabulous floor to ceiling pantry. French windows adjacent to the dining area open onto a private courtyard which is delightful on sunny days throughout the year.

3 Bell Cottages, Medina Road, Medina Road, Cowes, PO31 7BX Guide Price

First Floor:

The landing leads to two bedrooms, one with an ensuite shower room designed by Jack Thompson, and a spacious family bathroom.

The principal double bedroom has a high ceiling with wide oak floorboards and large sash window overlooking the river. Period features include a recessed arch, which was once a doorway between the officer's quarters in the adjacent armoury (now the sailmakers loft) to the upstairs dining room in the old Bell Inn. The en suite shower room features a tiled shower area, marble floor with underfloor heating, Burlington wash basin and matching WC.

A second double bedroom has a sash window overlooking rear courtyard, with a stripped and painted wooden floor. The bathroom opposite features partly tiled walls, a large double-ended bath with shower over, twin Moroccan copper basins set in a hardwood counter top with a full length mirror above and a reclaimed cast iron stand below.

Second Floor:

The stairs lead to the second floor and has access to loft storage and two further bedrooms or bedroom and study.

The double bedroom has a sloping ceiling and window to front aspect with fabulous views of the river and The Solent beyond.

The fourth bedroom is a single, or study, and has painted wooden floorboards and overlooks the courtyard garden. A convenient cloakroom can be found on this level.

Exterior

The cottage benefits from a south facing paved courtyard to the rear of the property with a small border providing a low maintenance walled garden. Wooden sheds have been built to provide discreet storage for recycling bins and garden equipment. The courtyard is accessed via french doors from the kitchen/ dining room.
