

Ryde, Isle of Wight

- 3 Bedrooms plus Study/Loft area
- Well sized rear garden with Summer House
- Garage and Driveway
- Quiet and yet convenient position

About the property

Set in a sought after position, offering well sized accommodation and an array of features outside too, this three bedroom detached bungalow also offers a well sized loft room currently utilised as a large study.

Sit in a desirable part of Ryde, the property benefits from being in a quiet, free from traffic road and yet still providing superb convenience. Within walking distance, the property can access the sandy beaches of Appley, the bustling Union St and Esplanade, whilst also being a very short walk to the St Johns Train Station which provides excellent links through to Portsmouth Hard via the Wigthlink Cat and then a direct link to London.

Driveway parking for several cars, the property also offers a garage for any prized possession or further storage. In addition, the property has a private, good sized and sunny rear garden. The garden is in two sections, with the back area having a summer house to enjoy.

Internally, the property benefits from three bedrooms, a family bathroom and a modern fitted kitchen, installed in Spring 2023, along with a gas boiler. The lounge/diner is a social space, which provides a hub to the home. The first floor consists a large loft room, accessed via stairs, which is currently a study and further storage. The property in its entirety is bright, light and airy with neutral decor throughout.
