About the property

Situated amongst stunning countryside, touching distance of beautiful countryside walks and offering peace and tranquillity, whilst connections to both Ryde and the mainland are in close proximity too.

Fishing lakes, cycle tracks, a steam railway line and plenty of rambling walks are right on the doorstep, whilst Ryde, a coastal town nearby, offers everything from sandy beaches to bars, restaurants and cafes too. Those wanting frequent travel to the mainland will find the Hovercraft, Fast Cat and Fishbourne Ferry terminal all in easy reach.

Roebeck Country Park is well designed and tucked away from any busy roads, with this particular lodge being well positioned to ensure that the far reaching countryside views are enjoyed from both the property and the balcony area. There is parking suitable for two cars and space around the home. A holiday home with 365 days occupancy.

This particular lodge benefits from a very tucked away position and provides a beautiful outlook. There are two well sized bedrooms, an en-suite to the master and both bedrooms provide sufficient storage. The lodge offers neutral decor and soft, earthy tones to emphasize the views and surroundings.
