Set over two floors, this fabulous, recently renovated, period conversion comprises a wonderful bay-fronted reception/dining room with a feature fireplace, a stunning eat-in kitchen with an Italian marble top breakfast bar and integrated appliances, two beautiful bedrooms, and a smart shower room. On the second floor there is a large, versatile storage space, a further double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and air conditioning. Further benefits include high ceilings with cornices and a utility room with ample storage.

This property has its own private entrance and a lovely sunny west-facing garden, that is divided into private and communal parts as well as a private garage/outhouse opening into the garden with electricity, ideal for a home office/recreation room/garden bar. The property is ideally located within walking distance of Osterley tube station as well as Isleworth BR station.

An early viewing is highly recommended.
