Set in a great location and presented in good condition, a lovely two double bedroom first floor flat.

This beautiful property will be the envy of all and not only offers oodles of space but is also bright and airy throughout, somewhere you will truly call home.

Features include a separate reception room, an ideal place to kick off those shoes while you sit back and unwind for the evening with your partner or a great excuse for the eager host to entertain their family and friends.

With a separate kitchen the head chef has every reason to show off their culinary skills to their friends but also somewhere they can prepare that lovely meal for the family or romantic meal for two.

Further benefits include two bedrooms, modern family bathroom, ample storage and resident permit parking to the front

This great property is not only in a popular residential area but also a stones throw away from all the local amenities. Seen as the ideal home for a professional couple or a young family and early viewings are highly advised to avoid disappointment.
