Description

This modern and spacious second-floor apartment with a pleasant outlook from the spacious balcony benefits from a luxury kitchen and bathroom, double bedroom, good size reception room, underfloor heating, separate utility cupboard, lift access, secure video entry, well-maintained communal roof gardens, air exchange system, double glazing, and ample storage throughout.

Exeter House is located at the rear of Frazer Nash Close, a landmark development completed in 2018. This development is a good example of modern living and is conveniently located close to Isleworth mainline station, the River, and a short bus ride away from Richmond, Twickenham, and Brentford. The development features well-kept communal gardens and an underground residents' bike store.

The remainder of the 10-year NHBC guarantee will be transferred to the new owner (approximately seven and a half years).
