Thurlestone Road, SE27

This wonderful four bedroom family house with large landscaped garden has been substantially extended and sympathetically renovated. The ground floor consists of an elegant and open-plan double reception with feature fireplace, high ceilings and sash windows. To the rear the kitchen has been built out into the side and rear resulting in a huge family living space with a central island, an excellent dining area and an additional sitting area over looking the garden. There is a useful WC beneath the stairs and utility cupboard off the kitchen.

The sunny, attractively-designed garden has a decked area, lawn and staggered BBQ area with outside kitchen space. On the first floor there is a magnificent bedroom suite to the front of the house with modern en-suite bathroom as well as two further double bedrooms and family bathroom. The top floor has a large primary suite with walk-in wardrobe and en-suite as well as eaves storage.

Thurlestone Road is a quiet residential road nestled within a popular grid of streets within easy reach of West Norwood station with services to Victoria via Clapham Junction as well as Tulse Hill Station to London Bridge and Blackfriars via the Thameslink service. West Norwood High Street also has a range of shops and restaurants within walking distance. Great schools are nearby including St Julians which is within walking distance.
