DESCRIPTION

This detached property is well-presented and boasts spacious and flexible accommodation and is located just a short walk from the beach and village. The property benefits from a spacious entrance hall opening to all ground floor reception rooms. The large, south facing sitting room, with part-vaulted ceiling overlooks the garden. The formal dining room has a fireplace and doors to the side of the property and also allows access to the master bedroom with en-suite shower room. A further reception room (or bedroom 2) is accessed by two doors off the entrance hall. There is a modern fitted kitchen breakfast room, with integrated appliances and double doors onto the garden and a spiral staircase leading up to bedroom 4. A further bedroom (bedroom 3) with study or dressing area is at the side of property next to the family shower room and separate W.C. This also has doors to the garden. The garden is a real feature of the home being south facing with thoughtful planting, a lawn and a terrace adjacent to the house. The detached studio with kitchen area, shower room, bedroom and large sitting room overlooks the garden with a westerly aspect. At the front of the house is ample driveway parking and a detached garage with metal up and over door and a door at the rear with a partitioned area currently used as a utility room. The second garage at the rear of the plot allows additional access onto Tuscan Avenue. We would highly recommend a viewing to appreciate the space and versatile accommodation of this character property.
