The Property

Carpenters sits within the highly desirable village of Longborough and has the benefit of stunning views across the Cotswold landscape. The property is unusual in so far as you approach the house through a walled entrance, which in turn leads into a wonderful courtyard terrace area. This has an almost Mediterranean feel and provides a covered area in which to enjoy the wonderful surroundings. The spacious entrance hall has a complete wall of built-in cupboards that cleverly hide away the utility area. The rear hall has a cloakroom and leads through to the dining room. A unique feature of Carpenters are the Swiss-manufactured frameless windows, which run almost entirely along one side of the house which allows in an abundance of natural light and taking full advantage of the views. Beyond the dining room is the spacious drawing room with a log-burning stove. No doubt the heart of the home is the wonderful kitchen/dining/family room with a full range of fitted units, integrated fridge freezer, dishwasher, gas hob, extractor fan and oven. Upstairs are three double bedrooms with a family shower room and en suite bathroom to the principal bedroom. Completely separate from the main house and approached from the courtyard is the annexe. Currently used as a separate art studio and office, there is also a shower room and this could be converted to additional guest accommodation or self-contained accommodation.
