THE PROPERTY

An opportunity to purchase a spacious family home within a quiet cul de sac. A four double bedroom, two reception room, two bath/shower room, extended semi detached former residence, offering exceptionally spacious accommodation, together with a car port, private off road parking, gardens and situated within a highly regarded residential cul de sac within walking distance to bus stops and Helston town centre with all its amenities on offer.

The property has painted rendered external elevations, under a pitched concrete tiled roof, UPVC double glazed windows/external doors and warmed by a gas fired central heating system. The residence has incredible light filled accommodation, naturally creating a light and airy ambience. The property was built circa 1960's and constructed of concrete block with cavity walls.

This spacious home will undoubtedly attract many buyers seeking to purchase a property within a highly regarded residential area being close to schools, town centre and bus routes.

Upon entering the entrance hallway, doors lead off to the exceedingly generous double aspect living room which extends the full depth of the house, and a good sized kitchen. The kitchen offers a generous selection of base/wall storage units, and is connected to the inner hallway where further doors lead off to the dining room and bedroom 4 with it's own en suite facility. A staircase ascends from the entrance hallway to the first floor landing where doors lead off to three double bedrooms and the family bathroom.

The enclosed low maintenance rear westerly facing garden is a real 'sun trap' and mainly laid to timber decking, together with shingled areas. The back garden offers a high degree of privacy, and an excellent venue for al fresco dining / BBQ's during the warm summer months.

LOCATION

The historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, which gives access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both junior and senior), sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.

DIRECTIONS

From Helston, drive onto the Falmouth Road (the A 394) take the first left turning, then first left again into Roskilling and the property can be found at the end of the cul de sac.
