THE PROPERTY

The entrance door leads to a carpeted staircase to the first floor landing. From here doors lead to the spacious kitchen, generous living room with character features including high ceilings, a feature fireplace and a bay window. The bathroom is also located on this floor. On the second floor is a landing and two double bedrooms, both with windows to the rear with countryside views.

The property has rendered external elevations, under a pitched slate tiled roof, some wooden double glazed windows and warmed by electric heaters.

LOCATION

The historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, which gives access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both primary and secondary) sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.

DIRECTIONS

From our offices in Meneage Street, go to the bottom of the street, at the traffic lights, turn left then almost immediately right into Church Street and the property can be found on the left hand side. There is an alley on the left signposted 10B, walk down the alley and there is a green gate on the right, go through the gate, turn right and this is the entrance to the property.

TENURE - Leasehold

A 999 year lease from 1985. The property owns a one third share of the freehold. We have been informed by our vendor that there are not any specific ground rents or service charges. Any maintenance costs are shared between the three properties and are done as and when something needs doing. The buildings insurance is renewed annually and the cost is split between three freeholders (approximately £200 each from Dec 2023).
