

Situated in an elevated position is this recently renovated three bedroom detached bungalow which enjoys fabulous views towards the North Helford River, Gweek boat yard and countryside beyond. Freehold. Council Tax Band D. EPC E48.

THE PROPERTY

A three bedroom detached bungalow which has been recently renovated throughout and is located in the picturesque village of Gweek. This delightful property boasts open plan living accommodation, new kitchen and bathroom and fabulous views towards the boat yard, North Helford River and countryside beyond.

From the entrance porch, a door leads to the entrance area which is open to the living room/dining room and kitchen. From the kitchen a door leads to the enclosed private garden with patio area for dining out and well stocked plants/shrubs and a shed. From the entrance area, doors lead to three bedrooms, a family bathroom and a useful storage cupboard.

Built in approximately 1965, the bungalow has external rendered and painted elevations, a concrete tiled roof and benefits from UPVC double glazed windows throughout and is warmed by an oil central heating system. The property also benefits from low maintenance plastic soffits and gutters.

One of the standout features of this lovely home is the light living accommodation and the well stocked and private garden with patio area to the rear and countryside views to the front. There is driveway parking for one car. The detached garage has been split with a storage space to the front and workshop at the rear.

OUTSIDE

There is off road driveway parking for one vehicle, gardens to front and rear and a detached garage. External lighting to front and rear.

DIRECTIONS

entrance on the right, take the next right which is Cryben and the property can be found a bit further up.

LOCATION

The quaint rural village of Gweek nestles within a sheltered sylvan valley setting at the tidal limits of the Helford River. The superb day sailing waters can be accessed via the nearby boatyard, where the river meanders along the scenic shoreline and eventually flows into Falmouth Bay. The area offers many splendid walks nearby, such as the famous Cornish footpath giving access to both north and south shorelines of the Helford River. The area is a natural haven for wildlife along the sheltered creeks, and the village hosts the National Seal Sanctuary which is an enormous attraction for summer visitors. The village offers a public house, local shop, and a local bus service to Helston and Falmouth areas. The well respected market town of Helston is only approx six miles distant offering an eclectic array of shops, schools and national supermarkets.
