THE PROPERTY

An exceptionally handsome, westerley facing, double fronting, four bedroom, three reception room, two bath/shower room, detached period house of much charm and stature, with the benefit of private off road parking and gardens. The property is located within the highly desirable tree lined residential environ of Meneage Road, and conveniently close to all the local amenities on offer.

This distinguished Victorian period property built circa 1860, offers an attractive exposed stone elevation to the front facade, complemented by substantial granite lintels/quoins, under a pitched slate tiled roof, UPVC double glazed windows and warmed by a gas fired central heating system. The property can be further warmed during the winter months by an open traditional fireplace which is situated in the living room, together with a gas fireplace situated in the garden room. The house would benefit from some cosmetic modernisation, whilst offering an extremely light and airy ambience, enhanced by the large windows together with the east and west facing elevations.

The property is set well back from Meneage Road, whilst overlooking the mature trees and generous grass verges that complement this lovely residential road.

The rear enclosed garden offers a lawn and paved patio areas, providing a sheltered environment and a good degree of privacy, ideal for 'al fresco' dining during the warmer summer months. A beautiful specimen Japanese acer features in the garden, together with established mature borders. Rear outside water tap fitted. The external front aspect offers hard standing for valuable private parking.

The property will undoubtedly appeal to discerning buyers alike seeking an exceptionally spacious home on a level setting, whilst in close proximity to nearby doctors surgeries, supermarkets, pharmacies, shops, bus stops and schools etc.

PARKING

There is off road parking for 2 cars at the front of the property.

LOCATION

The historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, giving access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both junior and senior), sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.

DIRECTIONS

From Helston proceed along Meneage Road travelling towards the Cottage Hospital, and the house can be found on the left hand side.
