THE PROPERTY

A superb opportunity to purchase this naturally light, four bedroom, two bath/shower room, detached family home in the highly sought after village of Mullion. From the entrance hallway is a cloakroom, a living room with stairs leading to the first floor. A generous kitchen/dining room leads to a utility room which in turn leads to the garage. Doors from the dining area lead to the well tended enclosed rear garden. On the first floor are three double bedrooms and one single, one has an en-suite shower room, a family bathroom and a storage cupboard. To the front of the property is a brick driveway with parking space for two cars and a low maintenance garden. There is access to the rear garden from either side of the property.

The property was built approximately 17 years ago. Externally the property has painted render with concrete tiles on the roof. The home is warmed by an oil fired central heating system which also heats the water. The oil tank can be found in the corner of the rear garden.

LOCATION

The village of Mullion caters for every day needs and facilities including various shops, primary and secondary schools, post office, restaurants, galleries, public houses, churches, and a superb eighteen hole golf course. Nearby are Poldhu beach and Mullion Cove and the picturesque Mullion Harbour is a stunning backdrop set amongst some of the finest cliff top walks the peninsula has to offer. The larger and historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, which gives access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both primary and secondary) sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.
