Available for sale for the first time since it was built in 1966. A generously proportioned three double bedroom, two reception room detached house with permission in principal to erect one dwelling at the land adjacent. Conveniently located in Helston town and within walking distance to shops and schools. Parking for several vehicles, an attached garage and gardens. Council Tax Band D. Freehold. EPC F37.

THE PROPERTY

Set in a convenient town location, is this versatile three double bedroom, two reception room detached property which also provides a fantastic development opportunity, with permission in principal to build one dwelling in the garden PA24/06114.

From the spacious entrance hallway, doors lead to the living room with feature fireplace, downstairs bedroom, shower room, kitchen and dining room. Upstairs are two double bedrooms, one with far reaching countryside views.

The property was built by the current owners father and grandfather in 1966. It is constructed of concrete block which has been rendered and painted with concrete tiles on the roof. The property is warmed by electric radiators and further warmed by open fire places in the living room and dining room.

Outside is an attached garage, driveway parking for several vehicles, gardens to front and side with planted areas.

LOCATION

The historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, which gives access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both primary and secondary) sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.

DIRECTIONS

From the Spar shop in Helston, turn into Meneage Street and on the right there is a ramp, you will need to come up the ramp at angle and the property is a bit further on.
