

Located in the centre of Helston town is this attractive stone fronted and deceptively spacious terraced house with three bedrooms, fantastic open plan living/dining room and an enclosed low maintenance garden to the rear. The property has planning permission to extend into the roof space PA23/01980. There is no allocated parking. Council Tax Band C. Freehold. EPC C75.

THE PROPERTY

Entering into the useful porch, the ground floor provides a generous open plan living/dining room with three useful storage cupboards. An archway with exposed stone leads into the modern kitchen, which gives access to the enclosed rear garden. The garden can also be accessed from the side of the property. From the living area, a turning staircase leads to the first floor where there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Planning permission has been passed to convert the loft space to provide another bedroom PA23/01980.

The home is built of stone, is lime pointed to the front and rear, has slate tiles on the roof and benefits from double glazing throughout and is warmed by gas central heating.

Being located in the centre of Helston town with all its amenities on the door step, this property is ideal for families or someone wishing to be in walking distance of shops, doctors surgeries and schools. There is no allocated parking with this property.

LOCATION

The historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, which gives access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both primary and secondary) sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.
