The property also benefits from an attached garage, well maintained gardens and driveway parking. Potential to extend (subject to planning permission) Freehold. Council Tax Band C. EPC C72.

THE PROPERTY

Located at the end of a cul de sac, in a highly regarded residential area, close to Rowe's Lane, ideal for walks straight from the house. The stand out feature for this property is the size of the rear garden, it has a patio area and is mainly lawn with fruit trees and some flowering borders. Garden shed. The property is perfect for families or someone who enjoys gardening.

On the ground floor is a cloakroom, kitchen with space for dining table and chairs, a good size living room which overlooks the enclosed rear garden. On the first floor are three bedrooms, a family bathroom and an airing cupboard.

The property was built in 2002 of block construction and has concrete tiles on the roof. Also benefitting from double glazing and gas central heating. Our vendor has owned the property from new.

LOCATION

Forth Gwedhen is a sought after residential area, located on the outskirts of the town. The historic market town of Helston stands at the gateway of the Lizard Peninsula which is Britain's most southerly point, which gives access to some of the most dramatic coastal scenery and beaches the UK has to offer. The coastal and inland villages are most picturesque which add to the overall charm of this delightful and highly regarded peninsula. Helston has an eclectic array of individual shops, well regarded schools (both primary and secondary) sports centre, doctor's surgeries, pharmacies and a cinema. The area boasts some outstanding walks and scenery nearby, eg Helston's boating lake through the National Trust land towards the outstanding Loe Pool and Loe Bar with the sea nearby.
