Sudbury
Guide Price £390,000

This unassuming bungalow is not to be under estimated, it boasts a wealth of living accommodation and is diverse in its layout. It is finished to a high standard with quality fixtures and fittings throughout, the kitchen is open with the diner and has been cherished by the current vendors. From the outside this bungalow is beautifully kept and attractive in its frontage with a well maintained front lawn, it is bordered with a pruned hedge row and has inset shrubs and various flower beds as features.

The bungalow offers parking for three or more cars to the side of the property on tarmac and is gated and enclosed by timber fences. To the rear this property continues to impress and deceive as the garden is generous yet beautifully kept. It has three different patio areas which offer seating for those evening parties.

An open plan kitchen diner stretching to a staggering 21ft is just one example as to the space on offer in this property. The kitchen is complete with integrated appliances, induction hob and inset extractor unit, gloss white eye and low level cupboards. There are three doubles bedrooms and a modern bathroom with a white suite. Further benefits include a summer house with power and light and a shed.
