PROPERTY

Being the former show apartment for the development and therefore enjoying a fine position within this recently built McCarthy & Stone retirement development, this well presented ground floor apartment offers a wonderful blend of space, style and convenience. The sitting room & master bedroom both have doors accessing the attractive south westerly facing terrace area.

The development offers a quality feel throughout and has a wonderfully sociable feel with a residents club lounge with Wi-Fi and also boasts a concierge service, a guest suite, laundry and a lift to all floors.

ACCOMMODATION

This beautifully presented ground-floor apartment enjoys a wonderful feeling of style, space and elegance throughout. The home features a 19'2 sitting/dining room which like the Master Bedroom has doors leading onto a terrace.

The kitchen is fitted with integrated appliances, white gloss wall & base units. The master bedroom boasts a beautifully fitted en-suite bathroom and a large walk-in cupboard.

There is a further large bedroom and another well-fitted shower room together along with a large storage/utilities cupboard. Other features include underfloor heating, oak veneered doors with chrome door furniture and double glazed windows.

COMMUNAL GARDENS

The apartment benefits from having direct access onto a south westerly facing walled terrace. To the rear of the development there are delightful communal gardens which feature paved seating areas and well maintained flower/shrub beds. There are parking spaces subject to availability.
