An Executive, Detached Family home situated in a corner position in a small development on the edge of the Roman market town of Alcester, renowned for its historic High Street and the many varied and interesting shops and cafes, along with excellent local amenities that the town has to offer.

This beautiful home offers deceptively spacious accommodation to include an impressive Reception hall and staircase, a Living room with feature fireplace and log burner, a good size Dining room opening to a beautiful Garden room with two sets of adjacent bi-fold doors bringing the garden into the living space.

There is also a fitted Breakfast Kitchen with sliding doors to the garden, a well-fitted Utility room, Downstairs WC, and a Cloakroom. The Double Garage has been partially adapted to provide two versatile rooms currently utilised as a Gym and a Study/Studio. There is plenty of garage storage space still available.

Upstairs there are Four Bedrooms, the principle bedroom with ensuite, fitted wardrobes and air-conditioning and, a Family Bathroom.

The Garden is a particularly impressive feature of the property having been stunningly landscaped by the current owner laid out around the circular lawn edged with small paving stones and Cotswold stone gravel adjoining the creatively shaped borders which are filled with many herbaceous perennials and evergreen shrubs along with several feature garden trees including Lilac, a weeping Birch and a Cherry. Several seating areas have been added to appreciate

Alcester dates back to around AD 47 and was founded by the Romans as a walled fort on the confluence of the River Arrow & the River Alne and boasts a wealth of stunning characterful properties. The Town has developed into an extremely popular place to live with a strong community who are rightly proud of their Town. The historic High Street offers a range of independent shops & cafés in addition to restaurants and pubs and a Waitrose supermarket.

The quality of local schools is a big draw to the Town including the extremely well regarded Alcester Grammar School. For more comprehensive amenities, nearby Stratford upon Avon offers a wealth of facilities including the world famous Royal Shakespeare Theatre. Fast train services from Warwick Parkway give access to London in a little over an hour.
