LOCATION

Tobermory is a beautiful seaside town which is situated on the North East coast of Mull and is the largest town on the island. The town, which was built as a fishing port in the 18th Century continues to be a popular location both for residents and visitors. There are regular ferry services from Tobermory, Fishnish and Craignure and a good road network linking the North East of the island with the Ross of Mull to the South West. The famous white sands of Calgary are just a half hour car journey away. Tobermory has an array of fantastic eateries showcasing local produce, craft shops and many other excellent amenities such a stunning 9-hole golf course. The island is home to the famous Mull Rally every October, where Tobermory plays a major role in providing accommodation and hosting events for competitors and spectators.
