Description

This high quality business centre offers fully furnished office spaces, with rooms starting with one desk spaces and (subject to availability) providing suitable accommodation all the way up to larger companies employing 100+ staff. UBC Rutherford House also has meeting room facilities available for tenants to hire by the hour or day.

The business centre also offers coworking spaces which can be taken on pay as you go day rates, or by way of monthly membership.

Telephone and internet services are easy to connect to as soon as Tenants move into the office space, with direct dial phones, voicemail facilities, client portal and choice of call tariffs and connectivity options.

Location

UBC is located on the first floor of Rutherford House, which is situated within the well established Birchwood Park area, home to a large number of office and industrial operators and accompanying amenities including Radisson Encore Hotel, Busy 0 to 5 Day Nursery and Alive and Well Fitness Centre.

The business centre benefits from excellent transport links as it is situated only 2 miles from Birchwood Train Station, 1.5 miles from Junction 11 of the M62, one junction east of the M6/M62 interchange, and on a bus route to Warrington Town Centre.
