Stoneleigh Hall sits in a beautiful parkland setting featuring an array of mature broadleaf and coniferous trees, including oak and weeping willow. The gardens are a haven for wildlife, featuring an ornamental pond.

Stoneleigh Court is accessed through private inner gates leading onto a gravel driveway providing generous parking, in turn leading to a single garage with remote door.

A flagged pathway with an arched metal pergola with climbers, including rose and wisteria, to a private enclosed garden. The gardens are attractively landscaped with two shaped lawned gardens, a circular paved patio and deep well-stocked borders. Adjoining the house is a raised paved terrace with outdoor lighting and a cold water supply. The gardens are south facing, partly enclosed by high brick walling and offer a good degree of privacy.

Important information

The common areas only outside our gates eg communal parking areas, gardens, pond and lane are owned by management company of which we are one of 4 shareholders. The management charge for 2025/2026 is 1/4 of £6,389
