Tucked away in a charming village setting, this wonderful extended two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow enjoys a picturesque backdrop of a gently flowing beck. Step inside to find a light and spacious lounge, an inviting dining area, a well-appointed modern kitchen, and a contemporary wet room, complemented by a practical utility room.

Both bedrooms open directly onto the delightful garden, where vibrant roses and thoughtfully designed patio areas create the perfect spots to unwind. Here, you can sit back with a cup of tea, listening to the soft murmur of the water as it winds its way past, a truly tranquil retreat to call home.

Nestled in the charming village of Brookhouse in the picturesque Lune Valley, this location lies within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, perfectly positioned between the stunning National Parks of the Lake District and the Yorkshire Dales. The surrounding countryside offers exceptional walking and cycling routes, with scenic trails and pathways to explore, while the nearby Bowland Fells remain a favourite destination for both walkers and cyclists alike.

Surrounded by a welcoming community, the villages of Brookhouse and Caton offer an excellent selection of local shops, cafés, and traditional pubs, along with well-regarded primary and secondary schools, making this an ideal location for families. Convenient access to the M6 at Junction 34 ensures easy connections for travel.
