LOCATION:

This Park Home site is situated in Liverton, and located in a quiet, residential park. Liverton is on the edge of the Dartmoor National Park, it has a popular village pub and superbly stocked general stores and post office. The neighbouring village of Illington offers a church, a general store, bowling and tennis clubs and a spa hotel among other amenities. The town of Bovey Tracey is approximately 2 miles away and offers a range of local shops, cafes and eating places as well as a health centre, library and a renowned craft centre. It is in within easy reach of the A38 Devon Express way linking Exeter and Plymouth.

STEP INSIDE:

Ascending three steps, you enter the kitchen/breakfast room, a delightful and bright space where natural light streams in through a window. It boasts modern cream cabinets, wood-effect countertops, spaces for a fridge/freezer and washing machine, as well as an integrated oven and hob. There's also room for a cozy breakfast table or bar. A doorway connects to the hallway, leading to the rest of the living areas. The lounge/dining room is equally radiant, with two windows and a front door. An electric fireplace serves as an attractive centerpiece in the lounge, while the dining section comfortably accommodates a table and chairs. Both bedrooms are doubles, and the shower room has been converted into a practical wet room with a shower, basin, and toilet. The boiler is neatly tucked away in a storage cupboard, and an additional small cupboard in the hallway provides extra storage space.

AGENTS INSIGHT:

"This modern residential park home has a light and modern feel and is ideally located in the popular village of Liverton, close to the post office/store. The generous size garden to the side of the property is a fantastic outdoor space to relax and watch the world go past."
