The Property

Foresters House as the name suggests is a former Forestry Commission property which is situated on the very edge of the popular, semi-rural village of Whitton, which lies between the market towns of Knighton and Presteigne, close to the Welsh/English border.

Built in 1960, Foresters House offers the best of both town and country living by being positioned in a close knit village setting directly neighbouring glorious countryside with access to many walks and trails, while also being conveniently 3 miles from Knighton's vibrant town centre with its many independently owned shops and facilities and 4 miles from the market town of Presteigne.

Well maintained by the current owners including adding a new roof to the main property in 2021, this spacious accommodation comprises a hall, downstairs W.C, boiler room, a useful utility room, a kitchen, dining room, hallway, living room and conservatory on the ground floor. On the first floor, a landing area gives way to all 3 bedrooms, a cupboard, bathroom and the separate W.C. All 3 bedrooms enjoy distant views over the garden and countryside.

Outside, the secure gardens are worthy of particular note and an ideal space for kids or pets to run around and play in. To the rear is a parking area provides ample off road parking for numerous vehicles and leads to the attached garage. A gate from the parking area leads into the largely paved rear garden area, which is stocked with a variety of shrubs and planted beds. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn, but like the rear is stocked with an array of flowered beds, shrubs, specimen trees and planted borders. In addition, there is a also a gravelled/paved seating area, which poses as the ideal spot to relax/entertain in within the warmer months of the year.

The Location

Foresters House occupies an idyllic setting on the edge of the small village of Whitton, which is encompassed by stunning, scenic countryside with rolling hill tops as far as the eye can see, Whitton and nearby surroundings are a haven for nature enthusiasts, ramblers and cyclists and is also close to the famous Offa's Dyke footpath.

Whitton is a friendly community which embraces a 'laid back', tranquil lifestyle. Rural, but certainly not inaccessible, the B4356 & B4357 run through the village, which lead north to the border town of Knighton (3 miles) and east to the market town of Presteigne (4 miles).

Both Knighton and Presteigne offer a wide range of independent retailers, supermarkets and regular farmers' markets, together with a variety of cafés, restaurants and public houses. There are a number of community clubs and societies, together with many sporting and recreational facilities, including football, rugby, running and a golf club at Knighton. Both towns have excellent leisure centres and primary medical practices, while Knighton also boasts having a train station, offering daily connections to Shrewsbury and Swansea.

Educationally both towns offer pre-school groups and primary schools, while Presteigne also contains a secondary school, John Beddoes, which is part of Newtown High School. Presteigne is also recognized as a cultural centre, and has attracted many artists and musicians over the years. It is especially renowned for its nationally-famous Festival of Music and the Arts held every August and in 2018 was once again named as one of the best small towns to live in by the Sunday Times.
