The Property

Maesgwyn is a lovely detached, two/three bedroom bungalow that is located in a quiet location on the edge of the village of Crossgates. Backing onto open fields the property enjoys a pleasant outlook but is in a convenient location for commuting. The property is accessed via a gravelled track off the council highway which leads to the garage and parking space. There is an area to the side of the track which is wide enough to park motorbikes if required. From the drive steps and a gate lead to a paved seating area and a path flanks the bungalow and leads to the rear garden. Mainly lawn, with mature plants and shrubs the garden is a lovely enclosed private area to enjoy.

There is a front door that opens to the main hall but as most cases you enter from the side/rear door which opens into the utility room. From the utility you step into the kitchen, fitted with modern cream fronted units with a tiled floor, the room gives a light feel. A double range style cooker sits within a chimney breast acting as a welcoming feature as you enter the room. The kitchen is open plan to the main reception room, again a light room which runs the full depth of the property. With windows to three elevations you can enjoy a pleasant outlook over the garden. The room also offers a wood burning stove and wood flooring.

The main hall gives access to the bedrooms and the family bathroom. The main bedroom is a double and overlooks the garden and the second is a generous single. Currently set up as a dressing room, this room could become a third bedroom if required. It works extremely well in its current use or could be a great nursery or home office. The family bathroom is a stunning room, fitted with an impressive modern suite, large walk in shower and roll top bath, it is well presented for sale.

Note - The original bungalow was build of non traditional construction.

The Location

The property is located in the Mid Wales village of Crossgates, which offers a close knit community and has facilities to include a petrol station, cafe, shop as well as a primary school and proves a very popular village to live.

The village is located a 5 mile drive from the town of Llandrindod Wells or more locally known as Llanddod is the county town of the largest county in Wales, Powys. Offering an extensive range of retail, recreational and educational facilities the spa town is a popular destination for visitors owing to the picturesque surrounding countryside and mixture of beautiful Victorian and Edwardian town houses, which overshadow the winding streets of many independent and well-known chained stores. Served by the Arriva Heart of Wales Line which links Shrewsbury and Swansea, Llandrindod is easily accessible by both rail and road with several local bus services in and around the area, neighbouring towns and villages. There is outstanding education available in the area, with several primary schools and a comprehensive secondary school and six form. The town also hosts a post school college – Coleg Powys, which offers a wide range of vocational courses. As mentioned Llandrindod Wells offers a great deal of everyday essentials, with an excellent range of independent retailers and a number of supermarkets chains, farm materials, banks, electrical stores and a large array of bars and restaurants with more further facilities for commerce, leisure, shopping and education available at Builth Wells, Rhayader and further afield Brecon. If you like to spend your time soaking up some local culture Llandrindod plays host to a theatre - The Albert Hall theatre, a museum - the National Cycle Collection in memory of Tom Norton, or the large man-made lake and accompanying sculptures. The town also hosts the annual Victorian Festival Many where locals and some visitors dress in Victorian, Edwardian or other antique costumes, and many of the town's shops and other high-street businesses dress their windows or otherwise join in the spirit of the event. If you are somebody that likes to participate in leisure activities and, Llandrindod is an ideal place for you, the town has many sporting and recreational facilities including a Football Club, Rugby Club, an international standard outdoor bowling green which hosts national and international events and a newer indoor bowling centre and highly regarded 18 hole, links golf course with driving range. There is also a leisure centre housing a full sized swimming pool, gymnasium, astroturf pitch and indoor sports hall.
