The Property

Introducing 11 Copall Paddock, which is a spacious, detached residence situated in a quiet, tucked-away position in the heart of Bishops Castle town centre. Number 11 is located on the left hand side as you enter Copall Paddock, which is a private and well cared for estate. The estate itself was originally made up of just 10 properties, with the current owner lovingly building number 11 as a further addition in 2005. Each property has its own driveway and expansive front garden, the whole scene feels reminiscent of the kind of idyllic residential setting you see in wholesome family films.

Being a private estate, Copall Paddock has its own management committee. Registered as a limited company, Copall Paddocks Ltd, is responsible for the general maintenance of the estate. The owner of each property on the estate must pay an annual contribution of £150, which is pooled together and used to fund any work which may be required. There is an annual general meeting which all of the residents are invited to, although it is not compulsory to attend if you do not wish.

Upon entering the property you are welcomed by the entrance hall which has stairs ascending to the first floor and grants access to the living room, the kitchen/diner and the wet room. The downstairs wet room comprises of a wash basin, wc and corner shower. Entering the living room, one can easily envision cosy evenings by the log burner, the true focal point of this room. The living room flows well into the conservatory through the sliding doors, and allows natural light to fill this space with patio doors leading you outside. Heading back through the entrance hall, the kitchen diner houses a wonderful 'Stanley Aga' and is fitted with a range of matching base and wall units. This generous room offers ample space for a dining table and chairs, with sliding doors leading you out to the flourishing garden. Accessed from the kitchen is the utility room which is fitted with a convenient wash basin and space for all of the essential appliance, with a further door leading you outside. In recent years, wood flooring has been installed throughout the living room, entrance hall, and kitchen/diner.

Ascending to the first floor, you will discover three double bedrooms alongside the family bathroom. To your left you will find the main bedroom with a pleasant rooftop view and an additional Velux window allowing further light in. The further two bedrooms, the bathroom, and the airing cupboard are all accessed from the landing. The family bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising of a bath, a wash basin and WC.

Positioned within a 0.15 acre plot, there a driveway offering parking for multiple vehicles, a detached single garage and flourishing gardens. Perfect for horticultural enthusiasts to get their green fingers stuck into, the gardens encompass the house and are largely laid to lawn with a patio area adjoining the conservatory. There is additional space to the rear which could be landscaped to serve as an excellent vegetable patch, a play area for children, or additional flowerbeds. The garden is truly worthy of particular note and poses as an ideal spot to relax/entertain in within the warmer months of the year given its south facing position.

Overall, number 11 is a hidden gem which is well built, inviting, homely and located in a sought after setting in a lovely town. Appealing to a wide range of buyers, there should be no shortage of takers for such a lovely property so be sure to book your viewing sooner rather than later!
