The Property

Ty'n Llan is a beautiful detached Welsh cottage with bags of character, situated in the beautiful Abergwesyn valley. If you are looking to get away from the hustle and bustle and find a quiet corner to relax and enjoy the stunning, rural way of life Mid-Wales has to offer then look no further. The property is an absolute pleasure to view and we feel the buyers will be extremely lucky to purchase this intriguing property. The property has been extended over the years by the current owners with replacement hard wood double glazed windows throughout and now offers spacious, well maintained and presented accommodation. You can just move in and relax!

You enter the property via the front entrance porch which in turn opens to one of the main reception rooms, the sitting room. This large room oozes charm and character and certainly sets the theme of the property straight away. There is an inglenook fireplace with a wood burning stove to cosy around in the winter months. To the left of the sitting room is the kitchen, with windows to three elevations it offers a light airy space, fitted with ample wall and base units in keeping with the character of the property. From the kitchen a stable style door opens to a paved seating area and pergola its a lovely place to sit and enjoy a morning coffee.

From the sitting room you have access to both the lounge and sun room. The sun room offers a contrasting feel to the lounge, with glazed and velux windows, together with French doors overlooking and opening to a large paved patio. With a slate roof and heating it is a lovely space to enjoy throughout the year. The lounge is a large room with a large oval wood burner, perfect if you have a family for that extra space and with glazed folding doors into the sun room it is a superb area if entertaining guests. Accessed off the lounge is the utility room with ample storage, with a useful ground floor cloakroom and entrance porch to the side.

Stairs from the lounge lead to the first floor and just wait until you walk into the master bedroom, it will certainly take your breath away! This fabulous room with a fully glazed elevation enjoys a wonderful view over the fields to the rear. With a vaulted ceiling and a n open doorway into an impressive en-suite it certainly has the 'wow' factor. The en-suite offers a modern white suite with a roll top bath and a large walk in shower. The second bedroom is a large double and also offers an en-suite shower room with a modern white suite. Accessed off the landing are bedrooms three and four which are both double rooms and the family bathroom again offers a modern white suite with shower over the bath and vanity unit .

Outside

Externally the property is well complemented by lovely well maintained gardens that surround the house. As you approach the property the gravelled driveway gives access to a high car port which has been built to accommodate a motorhome. The drive continues past the house to the parking and turning area with second car port. The garden is found on either side and rear of the property and offers well maintained lawns, with an abundance of mature plants and shrubs. Mature trees give maximum privacy from the neighbouring property. There are numerous outbuildings which offer a summer house and garden sheds but the most impressive is an elevated studio which offers additional accommodation for a sleepover with a bedroom area and shower room. This is a fabulous place for guests or children to enjoy. It could also be an ideal place for someone working from home that wants an office away from the main dwelling. NOTE - There is public bridleway that passes along the driveway. There is also a public right of way to a nearby graveyard.

The Location

The property is located in the beautiful Abergwesyn Valley which provides a spectacular piece of the unspoilt Mid-Wales countryside. The nearby Abergwesyn Commons stretch for 12 miles between the Nant Irfon valley and Llanwrthwl. They are rich in archaeology, including Bronze Age ritual sites and deserted medieval villages. A National Trust project is focused on the preservation of the peatland. To the north the ground falls away to the edge of the Elan Valley Reservoirs. The summit ridge is wild and bleak with expansive views across the roof of Wales. The valley offers several wonderful walking routes which take you through woods and over the Cambrian Mountains can be accessed through a gate at the end of the property.

The nearby Llanwrtyd Wells - 5 miles away, is a small town in Powys, mid-Wales, on the River Irfon. The town is on the A483 between Llandovery and Builth Wells and is located near the pass between the Tywi and Irfon valleys. Llanwrtyd has a rail station on the Heart of Wales line with connections to London Paddington at Swansea together with other local facilities including the primary school, two shops, post office, petrol station, doctors' surgery and pharmacy. Llanwrtyd Wells grew as a spa town around the Ffynnon Ddrewllyd, which still exists. The town is the site of the World Bog Snorkelling Championships and the annual Man versus Horse Marathon, as well as other annual events.
