The Property

The sale of 16 Llethyr Bryn offers a great opportunity to purchase a pleasant two bedroom, semi-detached bungalow, with an enclosed, manageable rear garden located on a quiet cul-de-sac within the town of Llandrindod Wells.

As you enter the property the hallway gives access to all of the main rooms. On your right is the kitchen, fitted with wall and base units with a window to the front and a side entrance door. Next to the kitchen is the shower room which is fitted with a white suite and with an airing cupboard for storage. The lounge is at the rear, a good size with a feature fireplace and in turn leads to the sun room, which has a pleasant outlook over the rear garden. The main bedroom is at the front, a large double with a bay window and a fitted double wardrobe. The second bedroom is a generous single and overlooks the rear garden.

To the front of the property is a tarmac driveway providing off road parking. A side path leads to the enclosed rear garden which is grassed and also provides a useful garden shed.

The Location

Llandrindod Wells or more locally known as Llandod is the county town of the largest county in Wales, Powys. Offering an extensive range of retail, recreational and educational facilities the spa town is a popular destination for visitors owing to the picturesque surrounding countryside and mixture of beautiful Victorian and Edwardian town houses, which overshadow the winding streets of many independent and well-known chained stores. Served by the Arriva Heart of Wales Line which links Shrewsbury and Swansea, Llandrindod is easily accessible by both rail and road with several local bus services in and around the area, neighbouring towns and villages. There is outstanding education available in the area, with several primary schools and a comprehensive secondary school and six form. The town also hosts a post school college – Coleg Powys, which offers a wide range of vocational courses. As mentioned Llandrindod Wells offers a great deal of everyday essentials, with an excellent range of independent retailers and a number of supermarkets chains, farm materials, banks, electrical stores and a large array of bars and restaurants with more further facilities for commerce, leisure, shopping and education available at Builth Wells, Rhayader and further a field Brecon. If you like to spend your time soaking up some local culture Llandrindod plays host to a theatre - The Albert Hall theatre, a museum - the National Cycle Collection in memory of Tom Norton, or the large man-made lake and accompanying sculptures. The town also hosts the annual Victorian Festival Many where locals and some visitors dress in Victorian, Edwardian or other antique costumes, and many of the town's shops and other high-street businesses dress their windows or otherwise join in the spirit of the event. If you are somebody that likes to participate in leisure activities and, Llandrindod is an ideal place for you, the town has many sporting and recreational facilities including a Football Club, Rugby Club, an international standard outdoor bowling green which hosts national and international events and a newer indoor bowling centre and highly regarded 18 hole, links golf course with driving range. There is also a leisure centre housing a full sized swimming pool, gymnasium, astroturf pitch and indoor sports hall.
