The Property

Introducing Bath House, which a link-detached, Grade II Listed, period property situated in the heart of Tenbury Wells, a mere stones throw from the vibrant main street with its many independently owned shops and facilities.

Available with no upward chain, Bath House is a unique and attractive building, which presents a pleasant blend of contemporary and traditional features and offers spacious accommodation across 2 floors including 3 double bedrooms, 2 reception rooms and 2 bathrooms. Outside there is a gated drive providing off road parking and surrounding, low maintenance gardens. The property also adjoins a 'green' space, which could be ideal for children or pets to run around and play on.

Well maintained, but requiring modernisation in certain areas, the accommodation inside is made up of an L-shaped entrance hall with separate doors leading off to the downstairs shower room, the dining room and the living room, while stairs rise off to the first floor. The kitchen is accessed from the living room and is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units and houses the boiler. Upstairs, a landing area gives way to all 3 double bedrooms and the bathroom. From the first floor windows, distant countryside views beyond neighbouring rooftops can be enjoyed.

Outside, as mentioned a gated, tarmaced driveway provides off road parking for 2 vehicles and leads to the entrance porch. The gardens are largely gravelled for ease of maintenance and have well-defined fenced and walled boundaries, while there is also a useful storage shed and a gate allowing easy access to the 'green' space at the rear.

The Location

Tenbury Wells, or more locally known as Tenbury, is a close knit, historic market town situated in the very north west of rural Worcestershire alongside The River Teme, which separates Worcestershire and Shropshire while the Herefordshire border is also less than a mile away.

Tenbury and the surrounding areas are known for growing hops and cider apples and renowned for its outstanding natural beauty and is a haven for nature enthusiasts and those of an active disposition. Encompassed by stunning scenic countryside with rolling hill tops as far as the eye can see the town and nearby surroundings are popular with walkers and cyclists and present a variety of outdoor pursuits.

A rural town, but by no means remote, Tenbury is located on the A446 and nestled between historic Ludlow (9 miles north-west), Leominster (9 miles south-west) and Kidderminster (17 miles north east). The town offers a host of everyday essentials, with an excellent range of independent retailers and a number of supermarkets chains, farm materials, banks, electrical stores and a large array of pubs and restaurants. If you like to spend your time soaking up some local culture Tenbury plays host to a theatre - The Regal which host a number of theatrical shows, film screenings and art exhibitions throughout the year. If you are somebody that likes to participate in leisure activities then Tenbury is an ideal place for you, the town has many sporting and recreational facilities including a Football Club, Rugby Club, and a Bowling Club. There is also a leisure centre housing a full sized swimming pool and gymnasium. Educational facilities include a pre schools, primary schools and a high school.
