Closer to home, the village pub, the village hall and the train station are all found within a 1/4 of a mile of the dwelling.

This period property, was originally a pair of semi-detached cottages before being converted into 1 larger dwelling in more recent years. The house retains separate stairwells, bathrooms and entrances and could work perfect for those seeking a property suitable for multi-generational living. Belmont Cottage showcases many character features including exposed timbers, stonework and fireplaces, the current vendors have refurbished the property to a high standard and have overseen works inside such as the installation of a new kitchen/diner, a completely new shower room, 2 new boilers and a re-decoration, all just to name a select few. Outside, they have extended the parking area and terraced the adjoining garden, had the chimneys repaired and had a retaining wall built at the rear creating a barrier between the bank and the back of the house. The property also has the benefit of UPVC double glazed windows and external doors.

Inside, the accommodations spans across 2 floors and is made up on the ground floor of an entrance hall with stairs rising off to the first floor, sitting room, living room, a dining room with further stairs rising off to the first floor, a fully equipped kitchen/diner with a number of integrated appliances, a useful store room and a utility room. The sitting room and living room both have impressive inglenook fireplaces while the dining room has a feature fireplace with a Clearview wood burning stove. The kitchen/diner and dining room have underfloor heating. On the first floor and accessed from the entrance hallway, a landing area gives way to 2 double bedrooms, a study/bedroom five and a shower room. Although there is an interlinking door from off the one bedroom to the other end of the cottage, the main access is via the 2nd stairwell from the dining room where another landing area gives way to a useful cupboard, 2 shower rooms and 2 further double bedrooms. 2 of the bedrooms have feature fireplaces, while all 4 enjoy countryside views to the front.

Outside, to the left of the property is a gravelled parking area with space for 3 vehicles, as well as the fore-mentioned newly installed terraced garden where views of Knucklas's famous viaduct are on offer. Found largely to the front and right side of the house, the beautiful gardens are worthy of particular note and are perfect for horticultural enthusiasts to get their green fingers stuck into! Overall, the gardens are well stocked with a variety of mature shrubs, specimen trees and planted beds, as well as vast section of lawn and well-defined fenced and hedged borders. Paved seating areas at both ends of the property allow the opportunity to follow the sun throughout the day and pose as perfect spots to relax within the warmer months of the year while enjoying the distant views. To the right side of the property finds a potting shed, outside W.C and a useful garden shed. The bank to the rear of the property has been well maintained and is mainly planted with shrubs. In addition and a real feature to the property is detached barn/out-building which is found adjacent the front of the house and could be an ideal workshop or fantastic storage space.

This fabulous property fully caters for the needs of modern day living and could be a superb family home for children to grow up in and be a part of such a close knit community, or perhaps a peaceful house to retire to, where you can remain undisturbed and enjoy long summer days pottering around in the garden and admiring the far-reaching views, a million miles from the hustle and bustle of busy city life. A truly magnificent house, which any owner would be proud to call "home"!
