The Property

10 Camddwr Rise is an impressive modern townhouse that is located on a popular residential development, on the edge of Llandrindod Wells.

Ideally located to be within a short distance of the town centre. The property is extremely well presented throughout. As you enter the house you step into the entrance hall which has a door to the ground floor WC and a second door into the kitchen. The kitchen is a light room, it is fitted with modern units and is open plan to the dining room. A double doorway opens to the lounge, which allows light to flood through the ground floor and makes for open plan, modern living. The lounge is a lovely room and has a pleasant outlook and with French doors opening to the rear garden.

The first floor continues to impress and offers three bedrooms in total.

The master bedroom is a double with a bay window to the front and an en-suite shower room to the side. The second bedroom is a double and the third a generous single, both of these rooms enjoy views over the garden to the rear. The family bathroom offers a white suite which is well presented for sale.

To the rear of the property is an enclosed rear garden, with flowering beds and borders, lawn with a paved seating area. There is a single garage and ample parking to the front and side of the property.

The Location

Llandrindod Wells or more locally known as Llandod is the county town of the largest county in Wales, Powys. Offering an extensive range of retail, recreational and educational facilities the spa town is a popular destination for visitors owing to the picturesque surrounding countryside and mixture of beautiful Victorian and Edwardian town houses, which overshadow the winding streets of many independent and well-known chained stores. Served by the Arriva Heart of Wales Line which links Shrewsbury and Swansea, Llandrindod is easily accessible by both rail and road with several local bus services in and around the area, neighbouring towns and villages. There is outstanding education available in the area, with several primary schools and a comprehensive secondary school and six form. The town also hosts a post school college – Coleg Powys, which offers a wide range of vocational courses. As mentioned Llandrindod Wells offers a great deal of everyday essentials, with an excellent range of independent retailers and a number of supermarkets chains, farm materials, banks, electrical stores and a large array of bars and restaurants with more further facilities for commerce, leisure, shopping and education available at Builth Wells, Rhayader and further a field Brecon. If you like to spend your time soaking up some local culture Llandrindod plays host to a theatre - The Albert Hall theatre, a museum - the National Cycle Collection in memory of Tom Norton, or the large man-made lake and accompanying sculptures. The town also hosts the annual Victorian Festival Many where locals and some visitors dress in Victorian, Edwardian or other antique costumes, and many of the town's shops and other high-street businesses dress their windows or otherwise join in the spirit of the event. If you are somebody that likes to participate in leisure activities and, Llandrindod is an ideal place for you, the town has many sporting and recreational facilities including a Football Club, Rugby Club, an international standard outdoor bowling green which hosts national and international events and a newer indoor bowling centre and highly regarded 18 hole, links golf course with driving range. There is also a leisure centre housing a full sized swimming pool, gymnasium, astroturf pitch and indoor sports hall.
