The Property

Introducing No.4 Bridge Street, which is an attractive, double fronted, period property located on the edge of the extremely popular and world famous town of Hay-on-Wye, found directly on the Welsh/English border within the picturesque Wye Valley and Brecon Beacon National Park.

Offering well maintained and spacious accommodation over 4 storeys, No.4 Bridge Street is a unique, Grade II Listed dwelling, which dates back circa early 1800's and offers the best of both town and country living by being conveniently situated approximately 150 yards from the vibrant town centre with its many independently owned shops and facilities, while in contrast follow the riverwalk/footpath, which passes the garden and you will soon find yourself roaming the surrounding beautiful countryside and enjoying picturesque views up and down the River Wye.

The house retains original features such as flagstone flooring, sash windows, fireplaces and a stone staircase whilst also offering a pleasant blend of contemporary finishings. In total, there are 4 double bedrooms, 3 reception rooms and 3 bathrooms, as well as a kitchen, useful utility and dressing room. Windows looking west frame stunning countryside and river views beyond the garden, while on the lower ground floor the impressive vaulted cellar area has been converted into a self-contained annexe, which could be an ideal and lucrative holiday-let, especially for those visiting the famous Hay Festival.

Outside, one of the many admirable features this wonderful property offers is the landscaped, west facing garden, which is a delightful space to relax within the warmer months of the year. The garden has stone walled borders and is stocked with a wide variety of mature shrubs and specimen trees, along with flowered beds, storage sheds, paved seating areas and pathways providing access to all corners. The current owners run a pop-up coffee shop from the garden from one the out-buildings and by doing so also have a W.C block. As forementioned, the garden provides direct access out onto the footpath providing endless walking opportunities along the riverside. A short distance along the footpath finds Wyeford Car Park where unrestricted parking is available. The property does not have designated parking however permits are also available to purchase from the council for parking within the town centre. In addition and found at the back of the house is a further courtyard area, which is accessed from the kitchen and utility.

Inside, the accommodation is made up on the ground floor of a hallway with stairs rising off to the first floor, a living room, dining room, study, kitchen and utility. On the first floor, a landing area gives way to 2 double bedrooms, a bathroom and a dressing room. Bedroom one has the benefit of a private en-suite, while a door from the landing area opens to a stairwell, which provides access to the top floor and a further bathroom. The top floor comprises of 2 more double bedrooms. On the lower ground floor, the annexe has an open-plan lounge/diner complete with kitchenette, as well as a bathroom and another sizeable bedroom. A 'Worcester' boiler was newly installed in 2025.
