The Property

23 Troed Y Bryn is a fantastic, modern three bedroom semi-detached house situated on a popular development on the outskirts of Builth Wells. As you enter the house, there is a useful WC to your left, a stair to the first floor and two doors which lead into the open plan kitchen and lounge. This huge space offers a modern design, with ample fitted wall and base kitchen units with integrated appliances. The room is extremely light with windows to the front and back. There are also French doors opening onto the rear decked seating area.

The first floor accommodation offers three bedrooms, two of which are large doubles, the master bedroom having a large wardrobe with hanging rails and an en-suite shower room. The third bedroom is a large single and there is a family bathroom fitted with a modern white suite.

Externally the property benefits from parking for two cars. Steps descend to the house and there is a path leading to the rear which offers an impressive decked seating area to the rear which overlooks the stream and backs onto a small wooded area and enjoys views to the fields. At the front of the house and underneath that parking area is a store shed which has power lighting and potential to connect the the water.

The Location

The market town of Builth Wells (Llanfair ym Mault) is located at the heart of Powys, Mid-Wales in what is arguably some of the most beautiful countryside in the United Kingdom. Builth Wells lies within the Historic Boundaries of Brecknockshire, situated on the banks of the River Wye and the River Irfon – The Upper section of the Wye Valley. Builth Wells is famously known for playing host to the Royal Welsh Show, which is the biggest agricultural show in Europe and attracts over 240,000 visitors to the town each year. With a population of around two and a half thousand – the positive impact this has on many local businesses located within Builth Wells is immeasurable. Builth Wells is ideally located in regard to beautiful surroundings with the Elan Valley and Brecon Beacons both just a short drive away.
