THE PROPERTY

The Chantry is a classic detached Georgian House understood to date back to 1805 and extended in 1835 built of stone and brick elevations and under the same family ownership for over 40 years. The house offers numerous features typical of its age and type including high ceilings, window shutters, sash windows, period fireplaces, panelled doors, deep skirting boards, ornate cornices and a sweeping staircase. The elegant accommodation is well proportioned, extremely versatile and arranged over three floors with additional cellar rooms ideal for storage. The majority of the rooms enjoy beautiful views over its own grounds which enjoy a south facing aspect.

ACCOMMODATION

On entering the property via a most impressive reception hall with original staircase and door leading down to the cellars together with cloakroom and WC. The principle reception rooms offer an abundance of natural light and space with impressive high ceilings, window shutters and period fireplaces. The kitchen/breakfast room has patio doors opening out to the gardens together with a range of oak fronted wall and floor cupboards with granite worksurfaces, induction hob, double electric oven and combination microwave. There is a multi fuel stove and access into a useful utility room.

On the first floor are six double bedrooms, all with period fireplaces and period features. The main bedroom has the benefit of an en-suite shower room whilst there is an additional nursery room/ dressing room. From the landing, stairs lead to the second floor together with access to a shower room and separate WC.

On the second floor is a family bathroom together with three further bedrooms with velux windows.

A stone staircase from the reception hall leads down to the cellars which comprise four rooms with flagstone floors, original fireplace and copper range, boiler room, sump pump, coal store and wine cellar with the original wine bins.

OUTSIDE

A large gravelled driveway leads to extensive parking for numerous cars. The front garden is stocked with a range of shrubs and plants with beech hedges leading to a 'secret garden'. Attached to the side of the house are a range of useful outbuildings comprising of the original coach house, stables and hay barn/piggery. The main gardens lie to the rear which are simply stunning and a particular highlight. Enjoying a private south facing aspect, walled gardens extend to around 0.87 acres ( 0.352 ha ) of beautifully landscaped lawned grounds interspersed with an abundance of flowers, plants and trees. Immediately adjoining the rear of the house is a paved sun terrace leading to a further paved terrace with fishpond and water feature and greenhouse. To the side ( east ) is a further extensive lawned garden with flower and shrub borders and attached greenhouse.
