PROPERTY DETAILS

The Fieldhouse is a magnificent, stone built, four bedroom, detached country home perfectly positioned in an unspoilt corner of the Dales National Park, enjoying stunning scenery from all elevations and set in two acres of glorious countryside. This wonderful home has been subject to significant improvement over the years and the addition of a superb extension, a shining example of how, with a little thought, charm and character can be retained and blended seamlessly with the new. This amazing home is the beginning of the story, The Fieldhouse is a truly unique home locally known as Hart Farm, having been a long established small holding providing animal assisted therapy. This super home also boasts Betty's Bothy a separate annexe which, for those wanting a life style change, could bring in an extra income or could provide accommodation for relatives. The house includes: large entrance porch, superb kitchen with breakfast room off, utility room and shower room, living/dining room, which has a feature ceiling and open staircase, leading to the first floor, with further sitting room and garden room. You will also find bedroom four/office on this floor. To the first floor is the house bathroom and three further double bedrooms, the master enjoys an ensuite and balcony with views over the land and gardens. Outside, large parking area, single garage, delightful well-manicured gardens around the house with hot tub, the property is surrounded by its three fields, one having direct access to the main road (with a potential wider access). Currently there is potential to rent a further two adjoining fields. There are two stone field barns, one used as a stable with adjacent tack room, the other has power and is used as a tractor shed, several wooden field shelters, two small copse, a duck pond and hen run.

Hawswick is a stunning hamlet set in the Dales National Park. The Fieldhouse is surrounded by highly individual stone built properties and in a very sought after location. The villages of Arncliffe, Kettlewell and Grassington are within easy reach providing a variety of independent shops, coffee shops, pubs and restaurants, for those looking to join in both villages provide an array of activities throughout the year. The market town of Skipton is approx.13.8 miles away providing excellent commuting links.

For those looking for that special property, perhaps offering a fabulous lifestyle change, this could be the one!
