The front door opens into a spacious entrance hall, complete with a cozy seating area at the rear and French doors leading out to the garden. A charming feature stone wall adds to the rustic appeal.

To the left, the converted garage, having a Sedum wildflower, eco friendly, green roof, presents a versatile space. Currently used as a lounge but equally suited as a bedroom, office or games room. This bright and airy room benefits from dual-aspect windows, bi fold doors and three feature Velux windows in the ceiling.

Back in the hallway, the home reveals even more intriguing detail. From this hallway, steps ascend to the first floor, where the main living accommodation is situated.

The open-plan living/breakfast kitchen is bathed in light from all angles. The contemporary kitchen features a Quooker style hot water tap, breakfast bar and a bespoke feature wall with a recessed multi-fuel stove, display niches, and a TV area. An archway leads into the stunning conservatory, which boasts bi fold doors, fabulous views and a glass balcony overlooking the gardens.
