This elegant double-fronted residence, held within the same family since 1958, underwent a thoughtful transformation seven years ago, meticulously blending timeless period features with contemporary fixtures and finishes throughout.

Spanning four floors, the home offers substantial living space, perfect for a growing family. However, don't just take our word for it—schedule a viewing and we are certain you'll be both surprised and delighted by the space and quality this home provides.

Stepping through the front door, you are greeted by a graceful entrance hall featuring an open staircase that leads to the first floor. The hallway is adorned with original Lincrusta wall coverings, ornate coving and a classic ceiling rose, offering a glimpse into the home's rich history. A practical under-stairs storage cupboard adds functionality to this inviting space. To the right, you will find the exquisite sitting room, bathed in natural light from dual-aspect windows—one of which features a charming window seat, perfect for soaking in the views. An attractive fireplace, along with original coving and ceiling rose, further enhances the room's character.

The magnificent living/dining kitchen is a true focal point of the home. Boasting a range of sleek, contemporary units, this space is illuminated by feature lighting and benefits from dual-aspect windows. There is also access to the lower ground floor, currently serving as a superb laundry room, complete with the original fireplace and built-in cupboards. This versatile space could easily be transformed into a games room or a second lounge, with direct access to the garden. Additionally, there are three convenient storage rooms located on this floor.

On the first floor, a spacious landing awaits, with an enclosed staircase leading up to the second floor. The master suite is a serene retreat, featuring an original fireplace and dual-aspect windows that frame breathtaking views. The suite also includes a dressing area and a luxurious en-suite shower room. Another large double bedroom on this floor showcases an original fireplace and enjoys equally stunning long-distance views.
