22a Great Hampton Street, Jewellery Quarter, Birmingham, B18 6AH

Description

This unique property is located on Great Hampton Street - just a stone's throw from the heart of the Jewellery Quarter, with exceptional transport links and independent hotspots around every corner.

The office space itself takes pride of place in a Grade II Listed building, which was once home to one of Birmingham's iconic Lloyd's Banks, boasting original windows and authentic features to make for a contemporary and comfortable working space - which is also accessible by lift.

As well as two open-plan office areas that have been carefully crafted for collaborative working, this property also provides two secluded offices, as well as a decadent boardroom directly off the central landing.

This recently regenerated office space is one of many projects in a wider master plan, with clear ambitions to transform Great Hampton Street with independent eateries, unique retail offerings and bespoke residential apartments. With this property being at the epicentre of Great Hampton Street, it is the perfect place to experience the area's exciting future and to build a thriving business.
