

22 Carr Cottages , Stalybridge, SK15 3NS

£725,000

Welcome to Carr Cottages, situated in this stunning backwater of Carrbrook, this beautiful family home is brimming with character, and the views are something to behold. Let us take you on an aspirational tour of this fabulous home.

The drive up gives an indication of what's to come, and on the approach you can feel the stresses of life being left behind. You really do get the best of both worlds here, just a short drive from the bustling & historic market town of Stalybridge in one direction, whilst the popular villages of Saddleworth with its cafes restaurants and independent shops, lie in the other.

The house is full of character, from the Indian stone flooring throughout the ground floor, the wood cottage doors and traditional style radiators throughout. The fireplaces in so many of the rooms give a focal point, and the exposed stone and beams all add to the charm.

There are two ways to enter the house, either through the boot room or the formal entrance to the front. Once inside you will find a fantastic open plan living space! Ideal for busy family life, and perfect for entertaining. There is a further spacious lounge with log burner, and a separate dining room with bi-fold doors out to the garden. Upstairs

Externally

Set within grounds that equate to somewhere in the region of an acre and a half, the gardens are a sight to behold. The fact that the property is only a few minutes drive to either Stalybridge or Saddleworth is unbelievable given how tranquil the setting is. Children will be free to play and enjoy the natural surroundings, and the sunny patio area makes a wonderful spot to sit with a drink in the summer months. There are several outbuildings that were once stables, and could easily be converted should you wish. There is a further field that the family rent for £500 per year that could be a menage if horses are your passion.
