£230,000

A rare opportunity has arisen to acquire a prominent and well established property in the heart of Ashton under Lyne. Known locally as the home of Alan Fish Ltd - an iconic business with almost 50 years of history; this substantial corner building is now ready to begin a new chapter under new ownership.

Offered for sale as one complete unit, 87 Cowhill Lane and 46 Canterbury Street represent a unique investment prospect comprising both commercial and residential elements, with a total internal footprint of over 2,200 sq ft (approx).

The ground floor features a retail showroom with large display windows, ideal for a range of uses (subject to necessary consents), along with a workshop area, office space, and steps leading down to cellars providing excellent storage or operational potential.

The two floors above have previously been rented out as three flats, with the two first floor flats and the shop currently sharing bathroom facilities. The second floor has served as a self contained flat with bedroom, kitchen/diner and bijou shower room.
