

272 Mottram Road, Stalybridge, SK15 2SU

£390,000

This beautifully presented property is a true interior design lover's dream, combining classic period features with modern, stylish touches. From the moment you enter, it is clear that no detail has been overlooked.

The entrance vestibule, featuring a stained glass door and tiled walls, leads into a welcoming hallway with original wood flooring. The lounge exudes warmth and character with a cast iron log burner, stained glass windows, far-reaching views, and a cosy, inviting atmosphere.

The separate dining room continues the theme with a further fireplace and ample built-in storage, including one cupboard housing the central heating combi boiler. The dining room flows seamlessly into the stunning south facing kitchen, which is awash with natural light and fitted with top brand appliances, granite work surfaces, and luxurious finishes.

Upstairs, the master bedroom offers an en suite bathroom and its own private balcony. Two further bedrooms and a boutique style family bathroom complete the first floor. On the second floor, a generous fourth bedroom with fitted wardrobes provides additional space for family or guests.
