Discover the apartments & townhouses

New Cross Central pays homage to the history and character of Manchester with a robust red brick exterior. The unique character of the building is also reflected inside with the apartments and townhouses retaining historical integrity with exposed concrete walls on the interior.

The location

New Cross Central is located perfectly between the already established Northern Quarter and just a few minutes walk from the hustle and bustle of independent shops and bars. Up and coming Ancoats is also on its doorstep, with everything from coworking spaces, pizzerias, independent breweries and amenities at every corner in Manchester.

One of a kind homes

Some of the townhouses open onto a private garden, while the apartments overlook the central courtyard. New Cross Central is a unique development, offering townhouses like no other in Manchester's city centre, it's an opportunity you will not want to miss.

Modern & unique apartments

Not your average apartment building, all homes at New Cross Central are dual aspect providing plenty of natural light, and with each home having its front door opening to the sky residents will feel the peace of a residential street with the amenity of city living. The double height entrance space will form a shared amenity for residents, providing a high quality space for residents to socialise.
